Dimensions Leisure Centre in Burslem, Stoke-on-Trent, are organising their third Spinathon for the Douglas Macmillan Hospice. Their two previous Spinathons have raised over £1,500.

This year's event is being held at the complex's Fitness Centre and will take place on Sunday 16th August from 10am until 1pm.

Organiser, Neil Thomas, said: "We hope to raise £1,000 through sponsorship this year. Douglas Macmillan Hospice is such a wonderful local charity and we all know of somebody who has been looked after by the wonderful staff at the Hospice."

PR and Media Officer for the Douglas Macmillan, Peter Keller, added: "We are extremely grateful to Neil and Dimensions for organising this event on our behalf."

In order to provide the standard of care that they do, it costs £7million a year to run the Hospice. The money raised from the Spinathon will help with this funding.

If you would like to organise an event or make a donation to the Hospice, you can do this either by contacting the Fundraising Team on: 01782 344304 or by going online at: www.dmhospice.org.uk.
